

1:1 with Animals of Antarctica

Interactive Teaching Materials

Ursula Tscherter

Living on the White Continent

Wandering albatross

Leopard seal

Antarctic penguins

Understanding science

1. Counting penguins

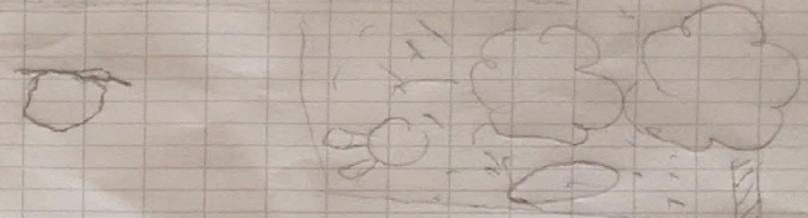

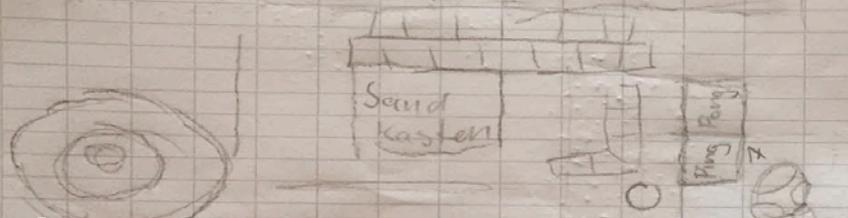

2. Photo-Identification

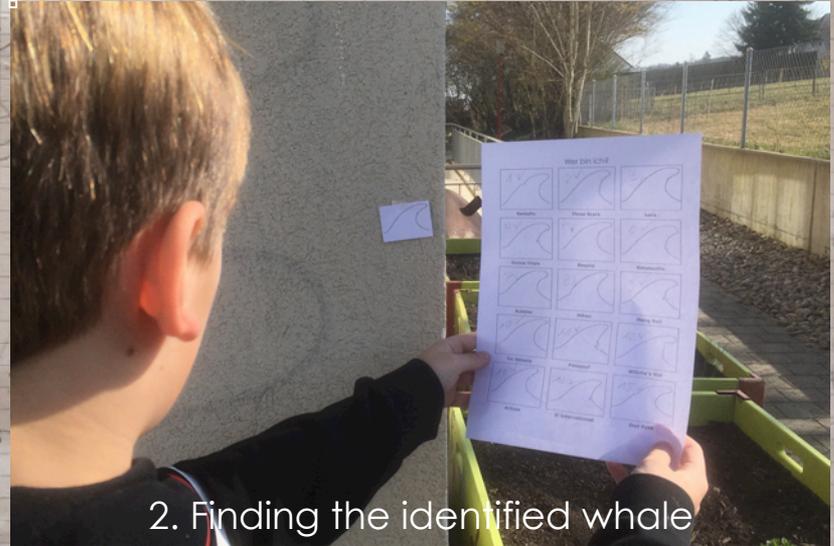

3. The habitat use of whales

stein Baum drösi gitar Lampe

1. Drawing map of school yard

2. Finding the identified whale

stein Treppe

Schule

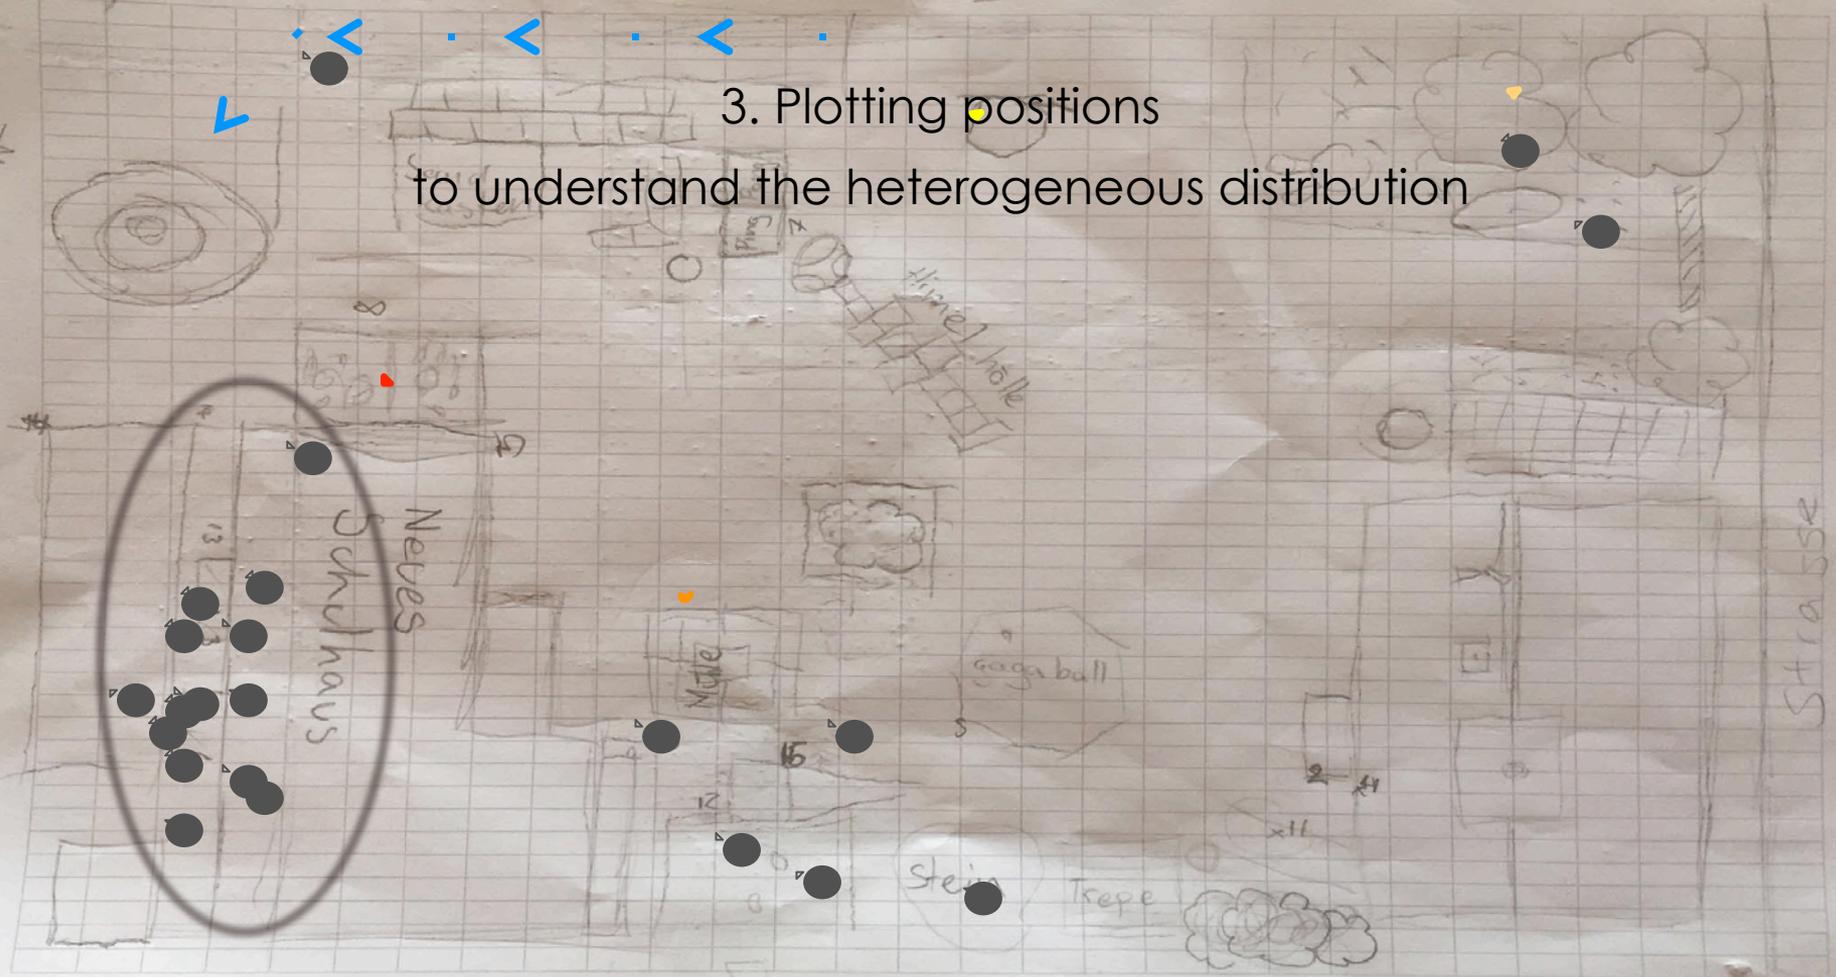

5. Klasse

10.10.2018

III, Esme

stein Baum drai gitar Lampe

3. Plotting positions to understand the heterogeneous distribution

Schulhaus

Strasse

1:1 with
Animals of Africa

Interactive Teaching Materials
Ursula Tscherter

African Animals in the Classroom

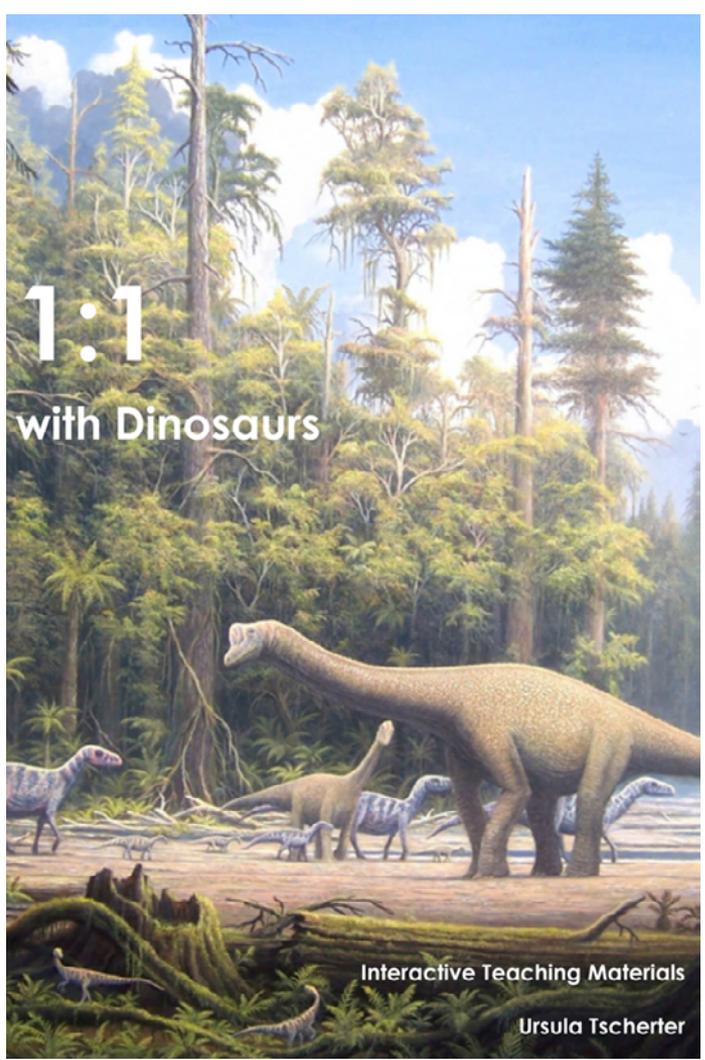

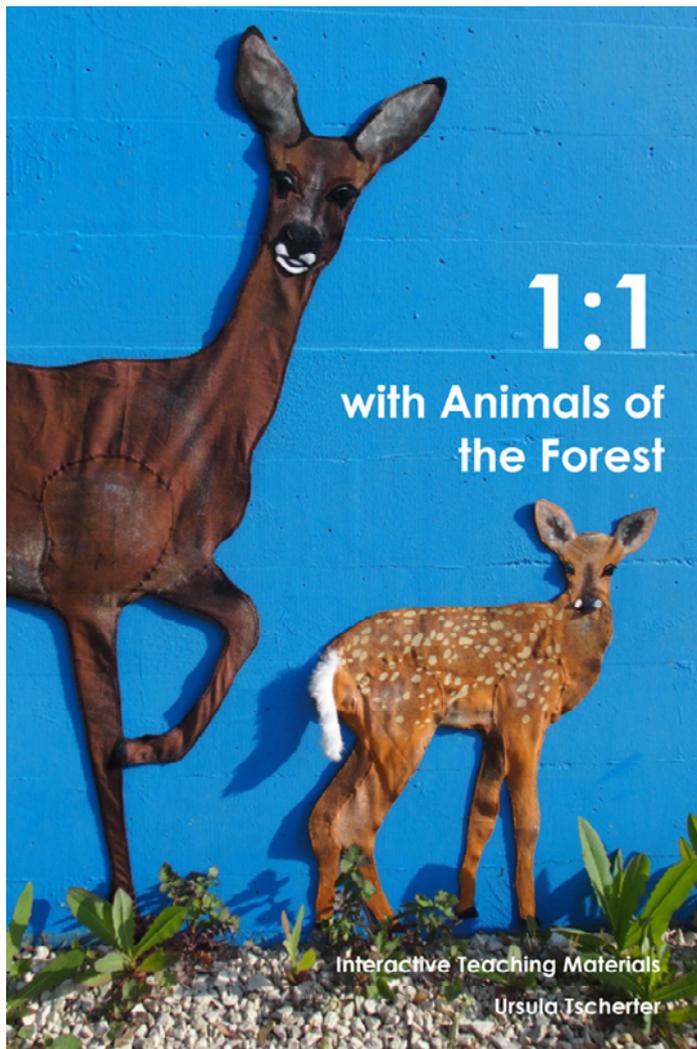

Meeting Animals from the Past

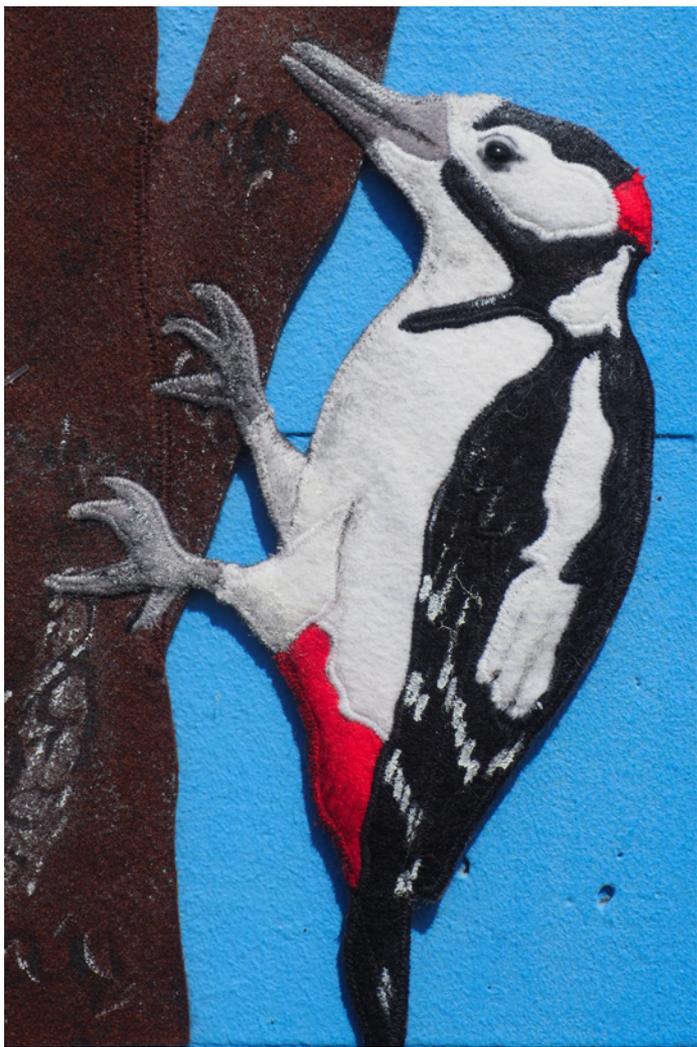

Finding Domestic Animals in the Forest

Identifying fur pattern

Photo: Dölf Hess

Lynx named Weng living in Switzerland

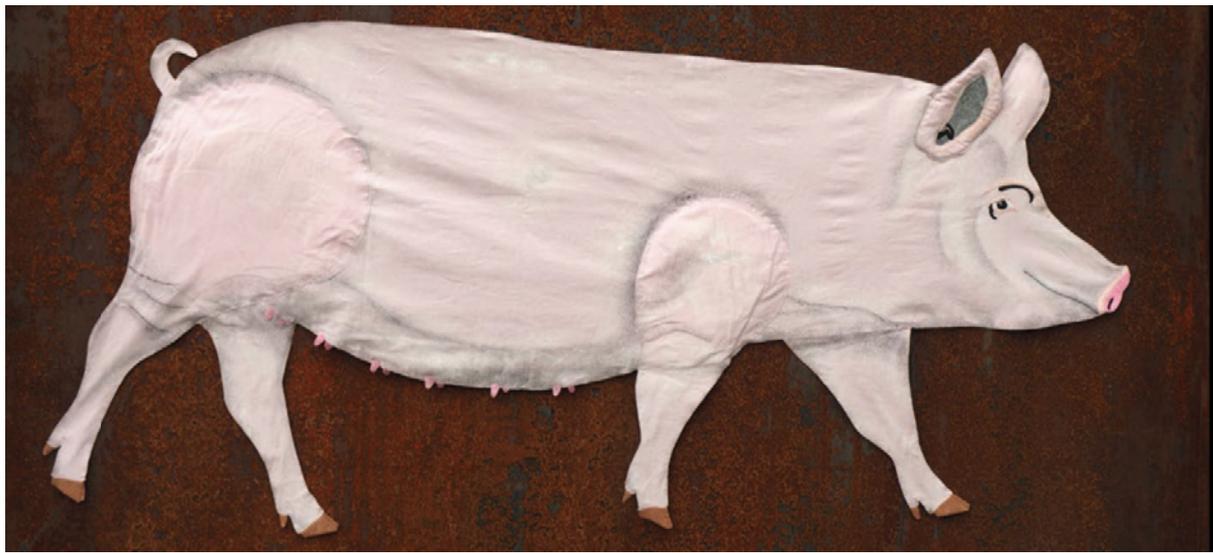

1:1 with
Animals we Eat

Interactive Teaching Material
Ursula Tschertter

Animals we Eat but never Meet

Yellowfin tuna

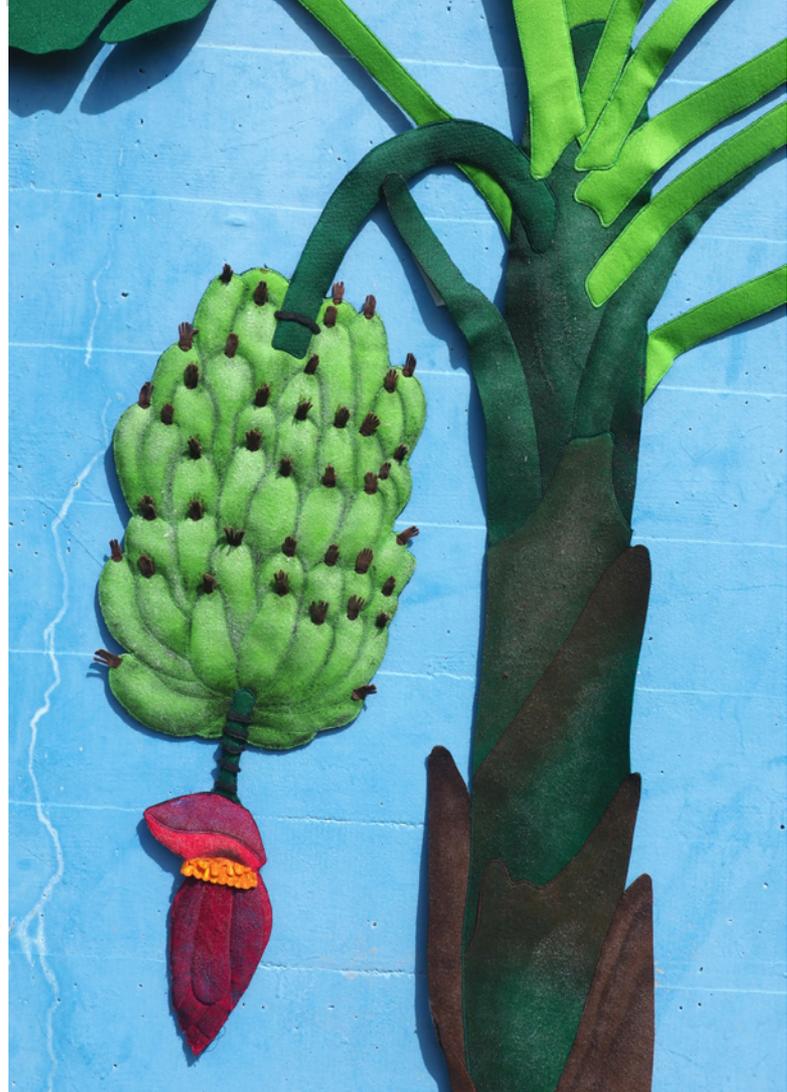

Salmon

Antarctic toothfish

Banana tree

Making of...

adult male

adult female juvenile newborn

Scientific conference

Teachers' education

Public outreach

At home

Product information

- all hand and single made by Ursula
- painted, made of cotton tissue, felt or synthetic fur
 - single animals or customized theme boxes
 - any species one can think of
 - all products on request
 - small species like insects are enlarged

For more information visit www.121withanimals.ch

Contact: utscherter@bluewin.ch

Idea, copyright and photos: Ursula Tschertter, V20231201